Unlocking Sub-Saharan Africa's Talent

Ashinaga at TICAD VI

These are students from Ashinaga's Rainbow House in Uganda. They have faced immense challenges, having lost their parents at a very young age. Thanks to the support from Ashinaga, these students now hold bright dreams for their futures and the future of their country. It is young, ambitious Africans like these who deserve the opportunity to turn that ambition into reality through access to a global education.

Ashinaga is a Japanese NGO with 50 years of experience supporting the lives of orphaned young people. Through our various programs, we support students to regain their confidence and make a difference.

We are proud to extend our support to students across Sub-Saharan Africa.
